CRICKET TOURNAMENT / EVENT SANCTIONING POLICY

RESPONSIBILITY AND APPROVAL FOR CRICKET IN THE PROVINCE OF ONTARIO

Effect 1 January 2015 and as revised from time to time, the following regulations for the approval of cricket in the Ontario are in accordance with the Regulations on Approved and Disapproved Domestic Cricket Events of the Cricket Council of Ontario (CCO)

Sanction Tournament Overview:

Purpose: This guide has been assembled to assist host organizer in the planning of a sanctioned tournament/event. CCO is committed to supporting sanctioned tournaments which follow the MCC rules, ICC and/or provincial playing conditions and regulations and adhere to the CCO policies and guidelines.

Our goal is to ensure all tournaments sanctioned by CCO adhere to the standards of a provincial championship and the sanctioned tournaments are running in the best interest of the cricket in the province of Ontario and all CCO members.

Rationale & Requirements for the approval of the matches: The Cricket Council of Ontario (CCO) is the sole governing authority for cricket in the province of Ontario and is directly responsible for all cricket arranged and played in Ontario at every level.

- a) It is the exclusive right and responsibility of CCO to retain control over cricket matches, tournaments and cricket related events played within the ONTARIO and determine whether or not a particular match/tournament/event held and played in Ontario should receive its approval to take place.
- b) All cricket events held in the ONTARIO require the approval of CCO unless they are already specifically approved or pre-approved in accordance with Clause 1 . b above.
- c) CCO Administration is responsible for all domestic cricket played under their supervision and ensuring that approval is sought from CCO. Where approval is granted this should be documented in a manner that protects every CCO interest.
- d) In determining whether a match/ tournament and/ or event should receive approval, it is responsibilities of the CCO as custodian of cricket in the ONTARIO to determine whether the proposed match or event is in the best interest of the sport of Cricket and in the best interest of the CCO

Approved and Pre-approved Cricket

1. The list of matches which have received the approval of CCO will be posted on CCO website
2. No further approval needs to be sought for these matches/events.

Criteria for Official Sanction

- a) Any conflict with matches or events already in the Cricket Canada International or CCO domestic cricket calendar and/or agreements to which CCO and/or the Cricket Canada International or other Members are party.
- b) A requirement to ensure a fair and equitable allocation of calendar space among different events and matches (including formats of matches) to create a properly structured calendar.
- c) The extent to which the match/event will have any meaningful role in the promotion and development of the sport, or any other charitable or benevolent purpose.
 - i. The maintenance and promotion of the health and welfare of players, including by the prevention of overplaying and by ensuring the safety and suitability of the proposed venue(s)
 - ii. The impact of the event on the integrity and reputation of the game of cricket
 - iii. The safety and suitability of the proposed venue(s)
 - iv. The inclusion of a cricket game development element within the match/event
 - v. Any other factor which CCO may consider relevant to the best interests of Cricket.

Form of Sanction:

- a) No Match/Event may take place unless and until CCO has given written notice to the applicant of its sanction (approval) for the specific match or matches to which an application relates and then strictly in accordance with the conditions to which the approval is subject.
- b) If a match or event has not been sanctioned by CCO, it will be deemed to be disapproved, for the purposes of these regulations.

Conditions of Sanction

At a minimum, the following conditions must be satisfied in order for approval to be granted.

- a) Must be a financial CCO member or a CCO accredited/approved promoter.
- b) The Organizer must be eligible to participate in cricket matches/events played under the jurisdiction of CCO and, in the case of a Cricketer, he/she must not be suspended/banned/ineligible to participate by ICC and/or National Governing body and/or provincial Governing body and /or local Association
- c) A valid No Objection Certificate (NOC) has been issued in respect of each international player. This will also apply to Canadian National players under contract with Cricket Canada.
- d) Relevant visa to enter in the Canada is the responsibility of the player.
